THE SUREST ROAD TO WEALTH IS THROUGH LIBERAL ADVERTISING!

DIVIDE THEM.

It is hoped the viewers will carefully weigh all arguments made for and against the division of the wards of town and if this is done, we feel confident, the decision will be in favor of the petitioners. The division is a matter of absolute necessity and not a political whim, and any argument relating to partisanship is wholly irrelevant. If the request of the petitioners is not granted it will place the voters of the town at a disadvantage and deprive the citizens of an ample enjoyment of that in which they are greatly interested.

Pottsville, with less population than Shenandoah, has more wards than the latter place and they were formed years ago when the town had a much smaller population than our town has now.

The opposition to the division of the wards comes from the same parties who opposed the original division years ago. They are natural objectors and obstructionists and anything looking towards progress never escapes their stamp of disapproval.

The division of the First, Third, Fourth and Fifth wards is an imperative necessity and, aside from the question of economy, the question of dividing the Second ward is a secondary consideration.

DELAWARE Republicans are to be congratulated upon their recent sweeping victory. The state can now be placed on the list of victors for 1892. Just as true as God made little apples the Republicans will carry the state in the next presidential campaign by a safe majority.

The Patriot, published at the state capital, is now one of the best, neatest and newest dailies in the state. It is the most outspoken and independent of Democratic newspapers and it looks as bright as a newly-coined dollar. Its editorials and locals are well written and catching in style and last, but not least, the advertisements are models for newspaper men. The latter are certainly attractive and cannot

VIEWERS MEET!

DIVISION OF THE WARDS NOW BEING CONSIDERED.

ANOTHER SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

Teachers Elected to Fill Vacancies. All the Old Janitors Re-elected—Fred Shortland Arrested for Embezzlement.

Clarence J. G. Frick, A. B. Cochran and J. F. Mudge, of Pottsville, the viewers appointed to divide the present wards into one or more additional wards, met in Ferguson's theatre this morning and listened to the arguments of those present. As the Herald goes to press too early a full report is deferred until to-morrow.

SCHOOL BOARD.

An Election of Teachers and Janitors Held.

The members of the School Board met in the High School room last evening and consulted with the teachers on the adoption of text books for the ensuing term. Superintendent Freeman, Principals Ehrhart and several of the teachers recommended a few changes, which were discussed at length. The Board then adjourned to the superintendent's office for the transaction of general business.

It was decided to postpone action on the adoption of text books until the next regular meeting.

Lizzie Carroll, Richard McHale, Clarence Crobaugh, Katie Fox, Mary Roberts, Franklin Williams, Mary McGinnis and Hannah Morrison were named as applicants for the two vacancies in the corps of teachers. Mr. Williams and Miss Morrison were elected on the first ballot, each receiving the fifteen votes of the Board.

All the old janitors were then re-elected and Mrs. Flynn was elected as janitress of the Turkey Run school building at a salary of $10 a month.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.

Constable Phillips Arrests Fred Shortland at Philadelphia.

Fred Shortland, who was engaged in the harness making business in town, moved his family to Philadelphia on Saturday last. At an early hour yesterday morning Constable Phillips left for Philadelphia and last night he returned here with Shortland in his custody.

Shortland was at once taken before Squire Shoemaker to answer a charge of embezzlement, made by John Thorby, of town. The accused furnished $500 bail for his appearance at the next term of the Pottsville criminal court, Benj. Hasky furnishing the security.

Thorby's complaint is that on or about November, 1887, Shortland engaged with Thorby to be supplied with $30 with which to purchase robes and horse blankets; one half of the money received to be repaid when the goods were sold and after that the amount of money invested to be returned to Thorby. That Shortland sold the goods and embezzled the whole proceeds, profits and all.

Two Prompt Payments.

To the Officers of the Home Friendly Society, of Baltimore, Md.

GENTLEMEN:—I hereby tender my sincere thanks, through your Superintendent, Wm. T. Evans, and Agent James Patterson, for the promptness in paying the claim upon my daughter, Catharine Jefferson. The payment was made two hours after her death. Such promptness is most commendable and I recommend your company to the consideration of all.

Mrs. LOUISE JEFFERSON.
Shenandoah, June 10, 1891.

GENTLEMEN:—Permit me to convey my warmest appreciation for the promptness through your Assistant James M. Duffy and agent Fred Ackerman, in paying the death claim of my wife, Bridget McAndrew.

WILLIAM McANDREW
Shenandoah, June 10, 1891.

Indian Village.

An entire Indian Village has been added to the great Wild West, which undoubtedly cannot fail to be appreciated by "the people of the States." It is not a peeped tent or two, artistically decorated by some modern artist, as is seen in the many so-called Indian villages or encampments, but a bona fide Pete-haw-wat village, the wigwams or tepees with their lodge poles and trappings have been purchased in the Indian Territory and shipped east, that the people may enjoy the sight, once at least, of a genuine Indian village, illustrating the modes of living and the habits of the red man in his forest home, showing the squaws at their bead work, making moccasins, sewing wampum, lanning hides, etc.

The braves in council smoking the peace pipe, or "playing with his chief's son," and not the least attractive is the merry-faced pappees that never cry, but strapped to a board are truly objects of great interest. Taking it all in all the encampment is a scene of great interest, and one of the leading features of Paenoe Bill's Great Wild West Exhibition at Lakeside Driving Park, (East Mahanog Junction) for one week commencing Monday June 15th. Grand performances and parade every afternoon. Parties taking the 12:30 p. m. train from Shenandoah will arrive on the grounds ample time to see the whole show.

BARDSLEY PLEADS GUILTY.

The Ex-Treasurer Wags as He Admitted His Wrong-Doing.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—In the common prison van, with half a dozen hardened criminals as companions, ex-City Treasurer Bardsley was brought from Moyamensing prison at noon and arraigned before Judge Fall.

He was taken to a seat in the dock, where he crowded himself as much as possible into a corner.

A few minutes after he was called to plead to the 17 indictments found against him by the grand jury.

"John Bardsley, stand up," said Crier Hart. Slowly the ex-treasurer arose. "You are charged with leading public money as a public officer. What say you, guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty," said Bardsley, inaudibly. "You are charged with making and agreeing for interest on public money as a public officer. How say you, guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty," again, in a low tone of voice.

"You are charged, as a public officer, with investing public money. How say you, guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty," and with tears he sat down. His counsel asked time to present testimony for his client. This was agreed to and his trial was fixed for two weeks hence. He was again taken to the van and returned to his cell in Moyamensing.

The depositors of the suspended Spring Garden Bank held a meeting at which resolutions were passed condemning the course of Bank Examiner Drew with regard to both the Keystone and Spring Garden banks, and calling upon the proper authorities to ask for his resignation at once.

WAS IT MURDER.

BODY OF A WOMAN FOUND IN THE DELAWARE RIVER.

ANOTHER NEW JERSEY MYSTERY.

The Victim Was Seen Struggling in the Grasp of Two Men—She Beggred to be Released, Then There Was a Splash.

By National Press Association.

CAMDEN, N. J., June 10.—Facts which point to another murder have come into possession of the Camden police authorities and are being investigated under the supervision of Chief Dodd.

Shortly after midnight Miss Mary Coleman, a young woman living at 925 Beach street, Cooper's Point, close to the Delaware river, heard two agonizing screams from a woman. On looking out of the window she saw a young girl of stout build struggling in the grasp of two men.

"For God's sake, don't! Don't, for God's sake!" shouted the young woman. A splash later there was a splash in the Delaware and the two men ran away and were soon lost to sight.

In the morning the body of a young woman, who, from papers found on her person, is supposed to be Miss Blanche Humphreys of this city, was found floating in the Delaware near Morris & Matthews' shipyard, Cooper's Point, and the police think they are on the track of a tragedy.

BUTCHERED A HERO.

Peter Johnson's Body Found on the Shore of North Egg Island.

New Haven, Conn., June 10.—Peter E. Johnson, one of the heroes of the City of Columbia wreck off Gay Head January 13, 1884, was murdered early in the morning in a horrible manner. His dead body, dreadfully cut, was found lying face downward in a boat on the shore of North Egg Island.

The island, which lies on the east side of Fairhaven, is a favorite resort for clambers and fishermen, and the discovery of the murder was made by Joseph Hamel, Hamel, when near the island, was called by a stranger, a man 22 years old, who asked to be taken off. He waded out to Hamel's boat, and when landed hurried away, remarking: "Go look after my boat." Then the discovery was made.

The police are actively searching for the murderer. Johnson was a Portuguese and about 35 years of age.

THE BARTINE AUTOPSY.

Prof. Abbott Refuses to Give an Opinion of the Precarious Case.

ARREST PARK, N. J., June 10.—Prof. Frank Abbott, Jr., bacteriologist of the Loomis Laboratory of New York city, conducted the autopsy on the remains of Lawyer Bartine, who died the other day of hydrophobia resulting from a cat's bite, at the receiving vault in Mt. Prospect Cemetery.

Doctors Samuel Johnson, Hugh S. Kinnorth, Henry Mitchell and George F. Wilbur were present, also Mrs. Dr. Ella Prentiss Upham, the fiancée of Mr. Bartine.

The brain was badly congested. The left hemisphere showed a hemorrhage from the arteries at the base of the brain and the left side of the brain was well filled with coagulated blood. There was no lesion of the brain tissue, which proved that death was due to hemorrhage. The left brain also showed slight evidence of arteriosclerosis of the arteries.

The professor remarked that he had found such conditions of the arteries in cases of persons who had died of hydrophobia. A small piece of the brain was taken to New York for experimental purposes. Professor Abbott refused to give an opinion of the case.

AGAINST MISS GARDNER.

To New Trial for the Orange Belle—To be Sentenced on Monday.

NEWARK, N. J., June 10.—There was a curious and eager throng in court to hear Judge Kirkpatrick's decision on the application for a new trial for Miss Lucy Gardner of East Orange, the society woman who was convicted of stealing $250 belonging to Stern Brothers of New York.

After listening to the argument of counsel on behalf of Miss Gardner, and also the argument of the prosecutor, Judge Kirkpatrick said he saw no good reason for granting a new trial. He therefore denied the motion for a new trial and an arrest of judgment.

He gave notice that he would sentence Miss Gardner on Monday next.

PAYMASTER WARD INSANE.

His Accounts Proving to be Correct in All Particulars.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 10.—Paymaster Frederick Ward, of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company's railroad, has been taken to an asylum in Poughkeepsie for treatment.

His injuries in a railroad accident have affected his mind.

His accounts, which were alleged to be several thousand dollars short, are being straightened out, and it is now believed that they will be found to be correct in all particulars.

Let a Notorious Thief Escape.

NORWALK, Conn., June 10.—A man was arrested here yesterday on suspicion of being one of the three masked men who broke into the residence of Patrick Kearney on Plymouth avenue. He was discharged for lack of evidence, and it is now believed he was none other than Joseph Shanahan, the notorious thief who escaped on Saturday last from Deputy Sheriff Burke of New York, who was taking him to Sing Sing. Officers who arrived from New York are positive that the man was Shanahan. Efforts are now being made to recapture him.
